Local Gossip

The City Council will meet in regular session Monday night.

F. M. Mulfinger who has been working a fine horse for Dr J. M. Action sold it to Forest Stapp for $200.00.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church, will give a pound social on March 30th. Every body invited to attend.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Pleasant Grove will give a social next Friday at the home of Miss Georgia Dunn. Admission 15 cents.

"Aunt Martha" Perkins, one of Lancaster's oldest and most highly-respected colored women, died Sunday night, after a protracted illness.

I do thank the many friends and relatives who were so good and kind to me during my recent illness.

Mrs R. L. Hagan.

The U. D. C. of Kentucky, offer a prize for the best essay written by a child under sixteen years of age on "The Causes of the Civil War," State Committee. Mrs Mattie Bruce Reynolds, Covington, chairman. Mrs A. J. Casey, Hopkinsville. Mrs George Pierce, Fulton. Mrs Thomas J. Cheneveth, Maysville. Mrs Alex Doty, Charman Lancaster Chapter.

For County Clerk.

Mr J. W. Hamilton is a candidate for County Clerk at next regular election, and is out to win. His experience in clerical work is highly qualified, and his splendid work for the Democratic party will be realized when the race is made up. He will be sure to attract a strong following when the drum taps.

Candidate for Jailer.

Mr James Clark has announced his candidacy for jailer, and says that he is not only a candidate but he expects to be elected. Mr Clark has a host of friends and he is a good substantial citizen. For several years he has been a member of the Democratic committee and has rendered good service to his party in many heated campaigns.

Mr T. L. Wall received a telegram Wednesday telling him of the death of his sister, Mrs Handiboo, of El Paso Texas. Mrs Handiboo was also a niece of Mr T. L. Broadus, of this county. She was born in Kentucky but moved to Texas when quite young. She has frequently visited here and had many friends and relatives who will be deeply grieved to hear of her death. She leaves a husband and two little girls to mourn the loss of a kind and devoted wife and mother.

County Court.

About an average crowd attended county court Monday, and good order prevailed. In fact chief of police S. D. Rothwell and his night policemen S. M. Slier, have worked hard to enforce the law and it is said that the Blind Tigers are absolutely closed, and a man must send out of the county for liquor if he wants it. Many of our best citizens regret that Mr Rothwell has tendered his resignation, and we hope that he will reconsider the matter.

Auctioneer, Capt Am Bourne, reports the following sales: Plow horses $20 to $60; aged mules $100 to $175; a few cattle at 3¢ to 4¢ cts; sows and pigs $20 to $25.

Woods Walker, Josh Daniels and Squire Forest Stapp had their valuable stallions on exhibition.

Will Visit Us Again.

This year, 1906, will be the period for the visitation of the 17-year locusts. They were here in 1889, 1872, 1855, and further back the editor cannot speak from personal recollection. But they may not be so thick coming year as in the past. They depend on the tender twigs of the trees for nesting places, the eggs being deposited in the soft twigs. The newly hatched grub feeds on the juice until the twig dies from its effect and falls to the ground. The larva then burrows into the ground and remains until its 17-year period of development has passed, when it comes to the surface, climbs up the side of a tree and in the natural process develops into a winged "Pharoh," after which it repeats the process of reproduction just as its ancestors did 17 years before. But the continued cutting away of the timber narrows the breeding grounds of the insect until now the crop is not nearly so large as the previous one. This insect is one of nature's curiosities. —Winchester Democrat.

For County Clerk.

On Tuesday evening the argument in the case against W. H. Ward, for killing Henry Patterson, was concluded and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, after considering the matter about 20 minutes.

The grand jury adjourned Friday, returning 45 indictments, 2 for murder against negroes, one for turkey stealing, and the balance for misdemeanors, in most cases for the unlawful sale of liquor.

Civil cases were heard Friday and Saturday. In the case of Mrs Goodin, of Knox county, against Jim T. Hays, for $800, the defendant got judgment. Court was not in session Monday on account of county court.

The visiting attorneys this week were Messers McRoberts, Paxton and Judge Saufley, of Stanford; Harding Puryear and Fox, of Danville, and Col. Gaither, of Harrodsburg. They appeared in important cases which are being heard by Judge Bell this week. Prosecuting attorneys Chas Hardin and J. E. Robinson have both discharged their duty faithfully in the trial of criminals, and in drawing indictments found at this term of court.

A Plea For the Farm.

There has been a deal of talk on the text, "Back to the Farm." The Courier Journal is in receipt of a copy of a letter written by Mr William Borsodi, editor of the National Advertiser, on the subject and addressed to Secretary Wilson whom he urges to organize a "back to the farm" movement throughout the country. It is easily demonstrable that the young man and the young woman will find it profitable as pleasurable to stick to the farms, or to leave the crowded cities for the country, where one with small capital may more easily secure credit and a competency and can have in these days better opportunities as to the right kind of social life than that which is concomitant with limited means in the city." Besides it is quite true that "the superiority of country life in relation to the rearing of families will be recognized by all thoughtful people, and the happiness of being 'near to nature's heart' will be considered as truer and better than the pleasure which the city affords." It is a striking contrast the writer pictures in this passage.

Good Wages for Right People.

The Record office has been completely over-run with orders for job printing during the last ten days, and all hands have been working overtime. It used to be there were one or two extra bands scattered among neighboring towns, and an office could get extra help most any time, but things have changed, and first-class job printers are almost impossible to find.

They get better pay, have better hours and more comfortable surroundings than any class of labor and we do not understand why more good, honorable boys don't learn the trade. Never a day passes in any office that some boy don't apply, but, as learning him the trade is harder than teaching school, no newspaper man feels like giving his own time to a boy who will either know too much, or want to run the shop soon after he comes in. There is a growing demand for printers, we mean sober, reliable hands, and any honest, sober man can make good wages at it all the year round. Girls are being given the work of setting the regular reading matter, and we know some who have better positions, more satisfactory places than book-keepers, salesladies or stenographers. All work about a printing office is complicated and responsible, but anyone with a will can learn it in all its branches.

Fire in "Middlesboro."

The dwelling of Jesse Miles, a well-known colored man who lives in "Middlesboro," caught fire Wednesday and was half burned when the wagon arrived and extinguished the flames. The fire originated from gasoline which was being used to clean beds. Miles' loss is severe on him.

Good Showing by Garrard Girl.

Garrard county's entry in the Courier-Journal Tour-to-Europe contest, Miss Mary Lear, shows considerable gain by this week's report, and her friends are much encouraged. Clip the ballots from your papers and mail them to her at Paint Lick. They will not only be appreciated by Miss Lear, but also by her legion of friends.

Popular Place to Stop.

The Ballard House, on Danville street, just below The Record office, is one of the most popular hotels or boarding houses Lancaster ever had. Everything is kept neat and in perfect order, the beds and rooms are clean and the tables supplied with everything good the market affords. The rates are reasonable, and if you want to get the best meals and most comfortable quarters, stop at the Ballard House.

Hill.

The news of the death of Mrs Effie Hill, which occurred at her home in Richmond Sunday, will be received by friends in Lancaster with much regret. Deceased was the wife of Rev F. M. Hill, pastor of the Methodist church at Richmond, and a daughter of Rev W. B. Godfrey, of Perryville. Three children survive besides a husband. The remains were brought to Perryville, where funeral services were held, followed by burial in the Perryville cemetery.

THE DEMONSTRATION

At the Grocery Store of H. M. Ballou Saturday.

One of the most unique and attractive social functions given in this city for some time was the reception held last Saturday at H. M. Ballou's well-appointed grocery store. It was an all day affair, and, but for the inclemency of the weather, the spacious apartment could not have accommodated the crowds gathered to partake of the dainty and substantial luncheon spread for the demonstration of Mr. Ballou's many customers. The bill of fare consisted of eatables furnished by Jas. Heekin & Co's coffee firm, the celebrated H. J. Heinkin & Co's preserves and pickle establishment and the National Biscuit Co. The representatives sent here by these well-known firms to demonstrate the superiority of their goods were Messrs. Graves, Mathews, Barrow and Hutsell. The manner in which these gentlemen served their delicate dishes to the eager public furnished a course of refreshments fit for a feast of the gods. The H. M. Ballou grocery store was appropriately decked with floral adornment for the large influx of guests, strains of music issuing from a curtained alcove lent festivity to the auspicious occasion, and the savory odor of Heinkin's baked beans and chow chow, the delicious flavor of Heinkin's coffee and the freshness and daintiness of the National Biscuit Co's breads promised a palatable and substantial repast. The demonstration of these articles brought to their representatives larger sales than they had the Saturday before in Lexington, the capital of the Blue Grass region, and also drew for Mr. Ballou the biggest trade he has had since he has been in Lancaster.

PAINT LICK.

Mail Boxes at Mount & Elkin's. Miss Louise Terry is quite sick with measles.

Mrs Minnie Jennings was in Lancaster Monday.

Miss Lois Casenburg has been quite sick with measles.

W. S. Fish has returned from a business trip to St. Louis.

Emory McWhorter and Roy Estridge spent Sunday in Berea.

Born, to the wife of H. L. Wallace, on the 25th a daughter.

Mr Austin, of Richmond, has moved to our town and is working in Griggs' shop.

Rev McCulum will preach at the hall here next Sunday morning and evenin.

The Christian Endeavor will give a social and pie supper on the night of April 5th.

Mrs Annie Adams, Sue Wallace and Patti Engleman were in Richmond this week.

Your correspondent has been on the sick list, consequently we were unable to get up the news last week.

Miss Lewis Gwynn, who has been quite sick with pneumonia, has recovered sufficiently to be out again.

Mrs J. W. Black, Mrs P. A. Farris, of McWhorter, and Mrs J. G. Morfet of Colorado are the guests of their sister, Mrs A. B. Estridge.

Wynn & Co have increased their stock of goods since changing hands and are doing a thriving business. Don't forget to call and see their new goods.

It is an every day's business for people to come here to rent a house or rooms. What a pity Paint Lick cannot spread out a little. There is hardly room for the wagons loaded with tobacco for the American Tobacco Co. They receive daily thousands of pounds.

BETTIS.

Mr Bright Herring lost his fine family horse.

Mr Kinnaird Bourne, of Hubbub attended court, at Lancaster, Monday and visited homefolks.

Messers Sam and Butler Sutton, of Illinois, who attended the burial of their mother have returned home.

Mr and Mrs Taylor House, of Crab

Orchard, visited Mr and Mrs Loyd

Bourne Saturday night and Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs Mary A Sutton regret to learn of her death which occurred last Monday night. She had been a constant sufferer of consumption for several years growing worse a a few weeks ago. She was a member of the Baptist church, at Lancaster, and the noble, pure life she has spent has won for her a crown in the Great Beyond. She leaves four children to her mourn loss, Mrs Loyd Bourne, of Bettis, Mrs Taylor House, of Crab

Orchard, and Messers Sam and Butler

Sutton, of Illinois. She moved to Crab about six months ago to have the kind and tender care of her daughter with whom she lived happily until her death. Funeral services were conducted at the Lancaster Baptist church

Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock and the remains were laid to rest in the Lancaster cemetery.

UNCONSCIOUSNESS OF FAME

Exemplified in the Extreme Simplicity of a Celebrated Author.

George Grote, the famous author of the "History of Greece," long the standard on that subject, was a man of great simplicity, and was wholly unconscious of his own celebrity. Several anecdotes illustrative of this fact are given in "Some Famous Women of Wit and Beauty," one of whom is Mrs.

Grote.

While Mr. Grote was walking in the park he would perhaps notice that one or two persons looked at him with some attention. He would at once turn to his wife in alarm.

"Have I got any dirt on my face,

Harriet? Is there anything the matter with my hat?" and he would clutch his headgear with both hands.

"Why are those people looking at me?"

Mrs. Grote's proud answer was, "Because you are George Grote, that's all!"

Once when he was on a visit to Cambridge, Grote wished to see the professor of natural history, but was told that the professor was so busy dissecting something that he could not be in-interrupted, "strong magnifying power, powerful light, shirt-sleeves up, cannot be bothered with anybody."

The modest historian would have re-tired, but his wife persisted that it was Mr.

Grote who wished to see the professor.

"What!" he cried. "Mr. Grote! Give me my coat. I must wash my hands."

In a minute he had transformed himself and would not let them go for two hours.

HARDEST LIFE OF ALL.

Sailors on the Ships That Carry Canvas Incur Many Hardships.

"Sailing ship life is the hardest of all," said the first officer of a liner, to a New Orleans Times Democrat writer. "I live on sailing ships till two years ago.

"Once we were 156 days in sailing from Liverpool to Frisco. It took us eight weeks to round the Horn—eight months of snow and hail and icy winds.

Night after night we sailors, turning in,

off took our soaking underclothes, wring the water out of them, and then slept with them under our pillows, so that, when we came to put them on in the morning, they would be warm.

"Sometimes we would spend five hours aloft trying to reef one sail—a sail frozen so stiff, so board-like, that it would be impossible to make a wrinkle in it.

"Handling these wet and frozen sails and ropes, our hands split. These cracks, which would not heal, are called 'sea cuts.' They are a sailor's bane."

A Favoet Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cure have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack.

Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, PINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS. Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be healed like any other tire.

Two hundred thousand pairs sold last year.

DESCRIPTION. Made in all sizes. It is light and easy riding, very durable and fitted made with a special quality of rubber which makes becomes porous and which takes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been bursted once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than one-half pound, the weight resulting from the fact that they are made of a special kind of rubber prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation common felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Bucket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being taken out of the tire. The price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the trade of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval.

We will allow a cash discount of percent (thereby making the price $4.40 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated steel tire pump and a leather pump bag free with each pair of paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gash). These must be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is safe as in a bank. Ask our Postmaster, Bank Manager or Post Master for our address. When you order send us a sample of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased with them that you will want to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

Owned Horse on Which J Wilkes Booth Escaped.

James W. Pumphrey, of this city, owned the horse on which J. Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln, made his escape. He was a prominent business man.

Mr Pumphrey owned a livery stable, and Booth engaged the horse there.
The spurs worn by Booth were borrowed from Mr Pumphrey. In the opinion of Mr Pumphrey, the assassination of Lincoln was devised alone by Booth. He regarded Mrs Surratt as innocent, and on the day of her execution he sat four hours on a swift horse waiting to carry the possible reprieve of President Johnson to the unfortunate woman.

The horse hired by Booth was not recovered. It is said to have been killed by Harrold, the champion of Booth to prevent detection after their escape into Maryland. —Baltimore News.

In Memoriam.

On Friday, the 23d, as the shadows of night were dropping their curtains, the cold and cruel hand of death un-linked the life of Clara Huston to re-link in that sweet, celestial home where when He bids them "come," the alluring call they cannot resist.
Just about one year ago, she was left in the somber darkness of widowhood. She then went so well with one of her daughters, thinking it lonely to live alone. She was stricken with apoplexy a few weeks ago and it was thought then death would soon follow but for some wise purpose the Lord let her stay with those broken hearted ones a little longer. She was reported better and all were helped up with the thought of her recovery. She then had a change for the worse and soon passed away. She was a refined lady, who was loved by most all who knew her. The remains were laid to rest in Mt.
Olivet cemetery where a large crowd of loved ones who assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to one of the grandest, most noble women Central Kentucky ever knew.

She leaves four children, Mrs Sallie, and Rosa Kaufman, Mr Will Becker of Indiana, Mr Charley Becker of Bryenville. The lovely character and disposition of Mrs Huston will never be forgotten. The bereaved family have the deepest sympathy of the people, who join in mourning the great loss. Funeral services were conducted at Mt Olivet Sunday at one o'clock.

A FOOLISH PLAN

It is a joy to eat. Welcome my dinner hour;
Because I just indigestion andague flavor!
Constitution is the result of indigestion, biliousness, flatulence, loss of appetite, self-poisoning, anemia, emaciation, etc.
acid, neuralgia in various parts of the system, catarrhal inflammation of the intestinal canal and numerous other ailments that rob life of its pleasures if they do not finally rob you of life itself.

"I'm bound in the bowels," is a common expression of people who look miserable and are miserable—yet who persist in letting nature take its course."

What a foolish plan would never be made could be aided by the use of August Flower, which is nature's own remedy for constipation and all stomach ills!

Little Pocket Physician.

Hyomei Inhaler that is Guaranteed

by R E McRoberts to Cure Catarrh.

Thousands who have been cured by Hyomei, call the inhaler that comes with every outfit. "The little pocket physician," as it is so small that it can be carried in the pocket or purse.

Prior to the discovery of Hyomei, statistics showed that at least 97 out of every 100 persons in this state were suffering from catarrh in some form.

The remarkable results following the use of Hyomei are shown by the smaller percentage today of people suffering from catarrh.

There is really no excuse whatever for anyone having catarrh now that Hyomei is so readily obtainable. If you have any doubt its value, R E McRoberts will let you have a complete outfit with the understanding that unless it cures catarrh, it will not cost you a cent.

A complete Hyomei outfit consists of the "little pocket physician," a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei, and costs only $1, while additional bottles of Hyomei can be procured for 50 cents, making it the most economical, as well as the most reliable treatment for the cure of catarrh.

Do not delay longer the use of Hyomei, if you have catarrh. This is a purely local disease, and Hyomei goes right to the spot where the catarthal germs are present, destroys them, soothes and heals all inflammation, and makes a permanent and lasting cure.
